TIME	1:00 PM – 4:00 PM
NO. OF PARTICIPANTS	36
VENUE	Dadha, Dankaur, Gautam Buddha Nagar, Uttar Pradesh
ORGANIZED BY	Electoral Literacy Club, GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management, Greater Noida

On 2nd September 2026, a impactful Voter Awareness Drive was successfully conducted in the village of Dadha, Dankaur Block, Gautam Buddha Nagar. The initiative was organized by the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management, Greater Noida, aimed at promoting electoral awareness and encouraging active civic participation among rural residents.

The primary objective of the event was to educate villagers about the importance of voting and to ensure that every eligible citizen understands their rights and responsibilities in a democratic system. Volunteers actively engaged with the local community through door-to-door interactions and group discussions, emphasizing the significance of each vote in shaping the future of the nation.

The initiative witnessed warm reception from the local community, with residents actively engaging in conversations regarding civic responsibility and the impact of informed voting. The campaign not only fostered a meaningful connection between students and the local populace, but also provided the volunteers with valuable real-world exposure to community service under challenging conditions. Many residents showed enthusiasm and willingness to participate in the electoral process, while first-time voters and elderly citizens were given special attention to ensure their inclusion and awareness.

The Electoral Literacy Club documented the drive and shared key highlights across institutional and social platforms to inspire wider engagement. This initiative stands as a testament to the dedication of GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management toward social responsibility and grassroots civic empowerment, with the ELC committed to continuing such impactful outreach programs in the future.

Despite adverse weather conditions caused by unexpected rainfall, the enthusiasm and commitment of the student volunteers remained undeterred. Equipped with awareness banners, posters, and informative materials, the 36 participants navigated the weather challenges effectively and managed to reach out to about 113 villagers across the locality.

This outreach initiative stands as a testament to the commitment of GL Bajaj Institute of Technology and Management towards building responsible and informed citizens. The ELC remains dedicated to continuing such efforts in the future to promote democratic values, awareness, and active participation in the electoral process.
